3828m² Residential Plot for Sale – Lania

€138,000

 Laneia, Limassol

An attractive residential plot measuring 3,828 sq. m. is available for sale in the picturesque area of Lania. The land falls within a residential zone with a building density of 20% and coverage of 20%. Essential utilities such as electricity, water supply, and telecommunications infrastructure are available nearby. The property also benefits from road access leading directly to the plot.

This is an excellent investment opportunity, especially considering the ongoing development of the new Limassol–Saittas road, which is expected to enhance accessibility and increase property value in the area.
